

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The number of calls I have received has been reduced significantly since the implementation of this law. If you wish to make it harsher that is fine, but don't take the teeth out of our law.